“India and the European Union in a Changing World: Perceptions and Perspectives” JNU, New Delhi, 1-2 March 2012

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The JNU Jean Monnet Chair in association with the Centre for European Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University invites papers for the conference “India and the European Union in a Changing World: Perceptions and Perspectives”, to be held at JNU, 1-2 March 2012.

This conference seeks to debate the relevance, convergence and divergence, and impact of relations between the EU and India since the first summit in 2000 at the bilateral, regional and global levels. The conference is inclusive in nature, with multidisciplinary participation from students, specialists, and practitioners and addressing economic, political, cultural and scientific dimensions of how the European Union and India perceive and interact with one another.

Major themes to be addressed are:

The European Union and South Asia
India-EU Strategic Partnership
Economic and Trade Relations
Indian FDI in Europe/European FDI in India
India-EU Free Trade Agreement
India, EU and Global Governance, Multilateralism
Multiculturalism and Identity in India and Europe
Environment, Climate Change and Energy Security
EU and Conflict Resolution in South Asia
India and the EU: Perceptions and Misperceptions

If you are interested in presenting at this conference, please submit an abstract of up to 500 words to Prof. Rajendra K. Jain, Conference Chair, at rkjain13@googlemail.com or rkjain@mail.jnu.ac.in by 23 December 2012.
