Q. (a) Whether it is a fact that Jawaharlal Nehru University has recently decided that the admission to research courses like M.Phil. and Ph.D. would be based on interview from the next year with entrance test being reduced to a qualifying examination in which the student is required to bag a minimum score of 50 percent;

Reply (a): As per the recent UGC Regulations 2016 published in Gazette of India of 5th May, 2016 all Central Universities/Higher Educational Institutes are required to follow the regulations for the purpose of granting admission to various programmes of study. Accordingly, JNU being a Central University shall have to follow the above said UGC regulations for granting admissions in the University to various programmes of study including M.Phil. and Ph.D. programmes.

Q. (b) If so, the details thereof and the reasons therefor; and Reply (b): Please refer to reply (a) above.

Q. (c) Whether Government has received any protest from student union against it and if so, what is Government's reactions in this regard?

Reply (c): Various students organizations have staged demonstration and sat on hunger strikes in protest against certain provisions of 2016 UGC notification on M.Phil./Ph.D. Admission. The Administration officials are in constant dialogues with them as well as teachers to clarify doubts and resolve contentious issues.
