CIRCULAR

The office of the Chief Proctor frequently receives complaints of liquor consumption by the JNU students and their outsider friends at PSR and other public places in the University, especially during night.

As per Statute 32(5) Clause 3(xiv) of the Statutes of the University, “consuming or possessing dangerous drugs or other intoxicants in the University premises” is considered as an act of indiscipline. Strict disciplinary action will be taken against all those who violate University norms in this regard.

Students are requested to cooperate with JNU security in such cases.
