JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY

in association with

INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE AND SPIRITUALITY
PHILOSOPHY OF VAIṢṆAVA VEDĀNTA

CULTURE, LEGACY, AND TRADITIONS

A two-day international conference

26-27 AUGUST, 2023

CONFERENCE THEMES

Literature, Philosophy, History, Practices in Vaiṣṇava Vedānta Sampradayas

COORDINATORS

Prof. C. Upendra Rao, JNU, Mr Parveen Kumar, ISS Delhi

THE LAST DATE FOR SENDING THE FULL PAPER IS 25TH JULY 2023

✉ vedanta@issdelhi.org   📱 91-99710-29784   🌐 issdelhi.org/conf/jnu

CONFERENCE THEMES

- Literature
- Philosophy
- History
- Practices in Vaiṣṇava Vedānta Sampradayas

The main texts in Vaiṣṇava vedānta include the Vedas, the Upaniṣads, the Bhagavad Gitā, the Pāncarātra (Āgama) texts, Nālayira Divya Prabandham, and the Bhāgavata Purāṇa. The philosophical, historical and spiritual aspects of Vaiṣṇava vedānta will be discussed in the conference by the renowned invited speakers through their learned presentations. Practices in Vaiṣṇava vedānta, theology of Vaiṣṇava vedānta, Vaiṣṇava vedānta in Indian culture, Current state and perspectives of Vaiṣṇava vedānta and its Sampradāya and many related matters will be discussed in this conference

PAPER SUBMISSION

We invite papers/abstracts related to the theme of the conference. The abstracts will be reviewed and selected ones will be asked for full paper submission. Scholars pursuing PhD or completed as well as working with university and college professors are eligible for the submission of full papers. We will try to publish the proceedings before the conference

IMPORTANT DATES:

- Deadline for full paper with Abstract in 300 words: 25th July 2023
- Date of Conference: 26-27 Aug 2023

HOW TO SUBMIT IT?

Please submit your full papers on vedanta@issdelhi.org

COORDINATORS:

Prof. C. Upendra Rao, JNU
Mr. Parveen Kumar, ISS Delhi

✉ vedanta@issdelhi.org
© 91-99710-29784
🌐 issdelhi.org/conf/jnu

THIS IS A HYBRID CONFERENCE

GUIDELINES FOR WRITING PAPERS/ABSTRACTS:

Here are a few guidelines that enable us in compiling souvenirs and proceedings in a much easier way.

- Mention your name, designation, affiliation, contact no. and email address on your abstract and on paper.
- Abstract and paper filenames should only have the author's name, e.g., Jyotsna Mishra (without Dr./Prof./Ms./Mr. and the title of the paper).
- Please submit the abstract and paper in .docx format
- For English use the font "Times New Roman" with a single space. Keep the title's font size 14, and the running matter of abstract and paper in 12, For Devanagari use Unicode font with single space. Keep the font size of the title at 16 and the running matter point at 14. If possible, use diacritical markings (on paper).
- Abstracts may be in a maximum of 300 words.
- The maximum word limit for papers is 5000 words.
- For references in the abstract write full Rigveda, Atharvaveda (No abbreviations are required). In numbers, follow –Rigveda 1.1.1 (use dot instead of /).
- For references in the paper follow – ➤ Instead of footnotes write endnotes ➤ Use abbreviations in endnotes ➤ Write Ibid./ वही, if same as a previous line in endnotes ➤ Format for secondary books in endnotes – author name, book name, publisher name, place and year of publication, Volume (if any), page no. Few examples – Keith and Macdonell, Vedic Index, MLBD, Delhi, 2007 (reprint), Vol. I, p. 54 / vavaśveśvaranātha, ṛgveda para eka evihāvikadṛ vi, nāgaprakāśaka, vadallī, 1967, pṛ. 200.