Item No.8

Regarding SIS Wall of Honour and update given by Prof. Bharat H Desai

As per the mandate given by CASR in its meetings held on 19.04.2023 and 25.08.2023, Prof. Bharat H Desai, Chairperson, Centre for International Legal Studies, has conceived, designed and installed the SIS Wall of Honour. It also comprises the history and trajectory of SIS from its origin as the Indian School of International Studies (ISIS), set up on 03.10.1955 by Indian Council of World Affairs (ICWA). As proposed by Prof. Desai, the Wall of Honour seeks to remember and commemorate the scholarly contribution made by all the former faculty members of ISIS and SIS.

The BoS places on record deep appreciation for the contribution and dedication of Prof. Bharat H Desai for establishment of Wall of Honour.

As a sequel to the operationalization of the above Wall of Honour, and the practical difficulties faced to retrieve the data concerning pictures, specialization and duration in JNU (years of joining and leaving), it has been resolved both by the CASR and the BoS to put into place a central repository of data of all the faculty members of the School with the School Office as well as in all Centre offices. Accordingly, all the faculty members are required to provide above mentioned details along with their present address and also to update the same at the time of leaving the service.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the Chair.

(Prof. Srikanth Kondapalli)
Dean, SIS
